“ A Tribute to Mrs. Mudry”

Irene Mieno Mudry (Born 11-11-1920) was only 97 when she passed over into Heaven on Valentine’s Day Evening.

My first best friend is her son Mike. We met in Kindergarten while attending Indian Prairie on Illinois Avenue on the East Side of Aurora...then went to the New Hermes Elementary, the following year.

My most vivid early memory of Mike is we were on the playground and got into a fight. He attempted to stab me with a blunt nosed stapler. Our teacher grounded us from recess for a week and just the two of us had to stay in the classroom, while our classmates frolicked outdoors. That was the real beginning of our lifetime friendship.

From that date forward, Mike and I would share/trade our sack lunches. Mrs. Mudry made the best cheese sandwiches with Kraft sandwich spread, and on Fridays, her tuna fish was absolutely the best!! Mike loved my Mom’s runny egg salad sandwiches which always oozed over the crust as chunks would plop onto the wax paper wrappings below. So, Mrs. Mudry quickly became one of my favorite Moms and one of my most Respected Hero’s!

As I reflect on Mrs. Mudry’s passing and our childhood’s growing up, Mike and I, and all of our “Aurora Boy” friends, came from very humble beginnings. Mike’s Mom, met his Dad, Mike in 1937 in a local CCC Camp that was established by FDR as part of The “New Deal” (Civilian Conservation Corps).

They married and together had 6 great kids. They raised their children in an 850-square foot home with 2 bedrooms and 1 bath and an unfinishable basement. Truly remarkable! And every day they worked hard to provide for their family. It strikes me as interesting that back then...none of us considered ourselves to be poor! That’s because we weren’t poor! We were rich. Rich in Faith,

Family and Friends!

Mr. Mudry passed away in 1986 at the age of 70. He served our country valiantly as a United States Marine during World War II. Appropriately, he died on Pearl Harbor Day. He too is one of our heroes!!

I feel grateful for Mr. and Mrs. Mudry...yes...6 children, 12 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren and still growing...is a wonderful legacy to leave behind. As we celebrate Irene's (Mrs. Mudry) life, it helps me to take pause, to lift my eyes toward the skies and to simply thank Jesus for sharing the Mudry family with ours. They are the true role models and heroes that we should strive to Honor and to imitate...for the remaining days of our lives!

Thank you Mrs. And Mr. Mudry for your Gift of Life! We find it fitting that you are reunited again...on Valentine's Evening...for all Eternity. And Mrs. Mudry, please, when my time comes I'll be anxiously waiting...for a tuna fish sandwich!!

With Love, Honor, and Respect,

Ken, Norma, Mrs. I., and our Aurora Boy and Gals...Till we meet again
