Papi you were an amazing father. Your cup runeth over of the love you had for your children and your wife. I know that Our Heavenly Father chose October of 1935 to bring you into this world because he had major plans for you and had projects he wanted you to complete for him. Like always as that amazing person you completed everything he needed for you to do for him. So that is why that on November 13, 2016 he chose for you to return to him. You will be immensely missed, but I understand that it was your time. Papi, thank you for everything you did for Jazmin an me. Love you
