“ Our deepest sympathy for the loss of Ivan. He was a truly loving husband, father, brother and uncle. As we miss him already, the strongest memories, those that come to mind immediately, are of his kindness and unselfish nature. He helped everyone he possibly could. His generous soul touched us all and has certainly earned him eternal peace at God's side in heaven.

“ Ivan and Marlene visited us in Arlington, Texas, a few years ago when they were still traveling. My husband bought a yellow toothpick holder shaped like a rabbit in a top hat made by Alessi when we had the opportunity to travel in Italy. Ivan got the biggest kick out of the toothpick holder. He shared he did not plan to go overseas to buy one, but insisted he would locate one in a garage sale one day and tell us about it. I never heard back from him, but I smile every time I recall that story.

“ I feel very sad; words are inadequate. I remember Ivan's enthusiasm for life and a summer visit to a lively household in Aurora, Illinois when my sister, brother and I were in elementary school. We had such fun and felt so included in all of the daily family activities. In later years, my Dad, Alton, Ivan's older brother and Mom, Marian, always enjoyed visits from Ivan and Marlene and (of course) Ozzie! Brad & Mary (Stangl) Clark and family

“ Marlene and family,
My heartfelt sympathy to you and your loved ones. Ivan was my Godfather. I remember those summer visits to Iowa and his attendance at all my special occasions such as graduations, wedding ,etc. He had my Dad's ( Vincent Stangl his brother ) sense of humor and that laugh. God bless you during this difficult time.
