“ I first met Jim early in my career back in 1995 when he was the compliance officer there. Great individual who loved his family and friends and always talked about them. Will miss him. Many prayers. God bless. My condolences to his family.

“ I spent 12 years with Jimmy at OLGCA and ACC. We sat in the same classrooms, played on the same sports teams, ran and biked around the old neighborhood, shared in some of the same merry (mostly innocuous) mischief, and occasionally got yelled at by the same teachers-coaches-parents. Jim was one of the most clever and creative people I've known -- with respect to wordplay, art class, and pretty much anything else he touched. Always quick with a joke, his good-natured smirk is an enduring happy memory from my childhood. I am feeling your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathies. Jimmy and all of you are in my thoughts and prayers. -- Dan Smith

“ We were deeply saddened to hear about Jim. He came to our bank several times when he first started at Thomas Compliance Associates, and we always enjoyed his visits and his training sessions. We definitely looked at him as more than a client, and considered him our friend. He was a great asset to our Compliance program and always professional and kind. We will miss him.- Jeff Blair, Greenville Savings Bank

“ My sweet, sweet friend. The loss of you is beyond a huge loss to this world. You truly had a heart of gold. Your intelligence and artistic ability always amazed me. When we talked of Ben and Sydney you couldn't contain your pride and overwhelming love for them. I've always loved you and will continue to love you until we meet again. My heart is broken but I know you've found the peace you so desperately deserved. I'll look for you in the skies at night....thank you for always being my friend. Love you, Penny Pace-Halvax
