“ That is so like Jay....one time in 83 or 84 we went to a cubbie game and we had to go to the bathroom...we were about 7 blocks from Wrigley...and there was one bar in front of us....we went in there and it was a flaming gay bar...I mean YMCA bar ...costumes and all....we bought a beer and next thing you know....we missed the first 4 innings of the game....those gay people loved us so much because we were not scared of them and they kept buying us beers.....one of the wildest times I can remember.....lol

“ Most memorable time I recall having with Jay & Lois, is when we went to a Cubs game and he decided to stop at the Cubby Bear restaurant while Lois, Jim Buckley and myself went into the park. When I called him on my cell looking for him, he replied, "I'm here waiving my arm" only to later find out he was at Cubby Bear waiving. Great guy, lot's of fun. You'll never be forgotten! Your friend, Tom.
