

Jeanine Marie Tweedy

September 17, 1941 - April 16, 2026

Jeanine Marie Tweedy of Aurora passed away peacefully on April 16, 2026, at the age of 84 surrounded by her family.

Jeanine was a lifelong resident of Aurora. After raising her children, she enjoyed her career as a teacher's assistant at Marie Wilkinson Center, Dietrich, and Bardwell Elementary Schools. She was big fan of Patrick Mahomes with the Kansas City Chiefs.

She felt a special bond with him since they shared the same birthday on September 17 th . I am sure it was no coincidence that she also passed away at 9:17 pm.

She also loved to watch golf and her favorite golfer was Scottie Scheffler probably due to his good looks.

Jeanine was a joy to be around. Her sense of humor and kind, sweet spirit were what people loved most about her. She had a close bond with all her family, and she loved reminiscing about her early days growing up on Spring Street where she lived close to her grandparents, aunts and uncles, and many cousins. They would take many family trips together which were probably her most precious memories. She was married to the late Gerald "Jerry" Tweedy on April 6, 1976. She and Jerry shared nearly 45 happy years together fishing, playing cards, traveling, and building wonderful friendships at their permanent campsites at Ayer's Landing and later at Mallard Bend Campground in Sheridan. They were also lifelong members of the 3rd Ward Social Club in Aurora. Together they served on many boards and social committees. She is survived by her children, James (Tina) Ginther, Kelly (Gary) Michelson, and Jeff (Karen) Ginther; her stepchildren, Lynda Berkland, James Berry, John Tweedy, and Robert (Sandy) Tweedy; brother Rodney Hilger, sister, Cindy Gates, as well as many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, and nephews. Jeanine is now reunited in heaven with loved ones who preceded her in death including her husband Jerry, son Denny Ginther, stepdaughter Connie Berry, parents Ray and Arlene Hilger, sisters Mary Ann Latino, and Sherry Hilger, brother-in-law Paul Latino, sister-in-law Pat Hilger, and nephew Rocky Latino. A special thank you to Jeff and Karen for opening their home and caring for Mom for over three years. There she enjoyed the companionship of family, yummy meals, and a beautiful view of the Fox River.
