“ Dear Tony and the rest of Jeanne's family: I had the good fortune of meeting Jeanne in 1987 when, as a young fresh out of college student, I came to Cedar Rapids from California to work for Michael Dukakis. Jeanne and Tony were two of the most passionate supporters Governor Dukakis had in the country. Jeanne was such a loving, sensitive woman, and we could always count on her for anything, whether it was to answer phones, bake Greek delicacies, or just to be a friend. Their Dukakis-inspired Christmas decorations in 1987 (and I believe Halloween decorations before that) were legendary. I was very happy that my parents were able to meet Jeanne and Tony in 1992 when I brought them to Cedar Rapids for a visit. My thoughts and prayers are with Jeanne's family in this difficult time.

Best,

“ Grandma,
You are one of the most amazing women I know. I admire how tough and loving you are. I had so many great memories with you. My favorite are going to your house every summer as a kids. Playing jokes on Grandpa, riding in cabs, riding in the boat, and cooking our creative meals. I am thankful that I got to have these wonderful experiences and I am glad I have learned to be a loving person who loves all from you. May you rest in peace and always be in my heart. I love you!
