“ Tio Chuy will always be remembered by me as a fun loving uncle who always had a smile on his face even his darkest days. He always enjoyed the company of family and friends and loved dancing when he was able to do so and of course, like most of the Elizondo's , liked visiting the casino. May he rest in eternal peace. His memory will be alive in our minds. Our thoughts and prayers are with him and the family. We love you Tio. Martha Elizondo Corral
