“ *Jim, Mary and Lynn,
Seeing Aunt Bea a few weeks ago and visiting with her had me going down memory lane. I was remembering a lot of fun times at your house and your mom was always so very nice to us.
May Joan rest in peace. Sending my sympathies.*

“ She gave me many wonderful memories and always to be remembered. Conversations, laughs and her words of wisdom at times when I surely needed them most. What a great person, a very good friend and always will be. my Condolences to Bernice, Jim & Mary and families. Joan enjoyed life and embraced it and had a huge heart and a great smile.. She will be dearly missed, but always but always close to my heart in the memories shared and made for a life time. Thank you Joan, for time shared and precious moments. For always Brin King

“ It was always a pleasure to see Ms. Grant and one of her sisters at St. Rita of Cascia for Mass. They were always very nice and polite. You knew things were all-right with the world because they were there, in their usual spot. She will be greatly missed. Our condolences to Jim and Lynn, and to the whole family, for this loss. She will be in our prayers.
