“ Dearest sweet Aunt Joann, These past few years have been heavy, on many of our hearts. Please accept my sincerest sympathy, to you, Janet, Debbie & children, & extended family members, for the passing of your son, John. I'm sure he would recognize me, despite the years, since our childhoods. Our faith consoles us, with a promise that John is no longer suffering pain & we will all be reunited, according to God's will. It is sad to experience the death of a loved one, yet, I feel joyful, John was able to give love & receive love with his wife, children, grandchildren, co-workers, friends, & family. May he rest in peace.
Yours truly, Debbie (Lutz) Guilmet

“ Deb, Bailey, and family,
We were so sorry to hear about John. My John and I loved having neighborly chats with him after our runs...if we were lucky enough to catch him on the porch with Bailey. Your John, really had a way with having us stop and smell the roses (literally, he would have us sniff the roses in your front yard). I know that you and Bailey will miss him dearly, and I am hoping that memories will keep you company and give you peace during your grief and always. We will certainly miss him around the neighborhood. Our thoughts are with you and Bailey. Please don't hesitate to get in touch with us if you need anything...after all, we are just a few steps away...or a call/text 630-849-6681. Peace to you,
John, Andrea, the kids, and Belle (the dog that doesn't play nicely with others) Stevens

“ We lived in Michigan and Johnny would run away to Florida, then we moved to Florida and he would run away to Michigan!! He was the child on the vacations always asking, "Are we there yet?!"

You will be missed my brother and my deepest sympanthy to Deb, your wife, and your children, Andrew, Sarah, Nathan and their familiies. May you rest in peace with Jimmy and Dad. No hell raising in heaven ya' know?! <3
