“ I am so sorry for your loss of John. Please accept my condolences. Psalm 55:22 promises that God will sustain you if you throw your burdens on him. He is our only source of comfort. I find that prayer helps alleviate the overwhelming sadness when I lose a loved one in death.

I look forward to seeing John in the resurrection (John 5:28,29). He will be able to enjoy his family/friends again.

These scriptures have brought me comfort and hope, and I hope they help you too during this time when our hearts are aching with grief.
