“ Mrs. Hepp,
I'm so sorry to hear of Mr. Hepp's passing. I have not talked to you in a long time but know that you are not forgotten. I still remember my favorite "sick day" babysitters. You two were always there to be loving and caring nurturers. You had a way of distracting me from my real or supposed maladies, you showed me that you truly cared for me and I want to let you know how much that meant to me. Whether it was letting me take naps on your couch through Law and Order marathons, making me soup multiple times a day, or teaching me a new card game (I'm up for a game of Casino anytime you are) you always made me feel welcome in your home. I truly appreciate that and, though this is a sad time, please know that you're in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Mary and family,
So very sorry. Jack was a part of our lives for many years. We especially enjoyed his wit, sense of humor, and talking about grilling in the dead of winter. We were unable to be at the visitation, as we were preparing for and putting on a big cooking class Friday night. God bless all. We will pray for him and hope to see you soon.
