“ Hello GiGi: my name is Fr. John (Jack) Kubeck. I live in Brookfield, WI (for last 50 years) and am a priest of Opus Dei. All through elementary school John and I were the closest of friends and continued through high school. We started De Paul university together. That’s when I think I first met you. I thought Johnny had good taste in girls. How quickly the years pass! I’m sure Johnny is in Jesus’ hands —what better place to be! I felt the need to say hello, for friendships are forever. My condolences and prayers. If you would, please say a prayer for me and my colleagues.

If you should ever come to Wisconsin, I’d love to say hi in person. My mobile # is 262-617-0538. Jack

“ Dear GiGi and family,
My deepest condolences on the loss of John. I had the pleasure of joining Charlie, Walt, Gene, Lyle, Bob, and John (who was always Jack) for over two decades of monthly poker nights. The poker group continues with mostly new faces, but we will raise a glass for Jack and Walt at our next game. Thanks for sharing him.
