“ John, your love for the Navy inspired me in joining the USNR. I had received my induction papers to the Army. We all know what turmoil the country was going through in the 1960's. Helen, myself and most of all, our beautiful family owe you all our eternal love! Anchors away. Brother, Uncle and Great Uncle. Helen, Chuck and family

“ John, you were my big brother, the first born in a family of 7. I always looked up to you since you were the oldest. I guess you could say that you were a man of many hats. First my brother, then husband to Carolyn and father to Jeff, John and Jimmy. Sailor in the Navy for 28 years, Amway Rep, owner of Econo Extermination, owner of Creative Realty, Oh yes you also were a mailman. And you followed in our dads footsteps as a fisherman, and grampa to 6' great grampa to 1. I'm sure I've probably missed something, but you always were on the go. My heart aches because I won't be seeing you any longer until my turn comes and we reunite again in heaven. love you, your sister, Wanda “ Carolyn and children, I was very fond of John--he had such contagious joy and such a positive attitude. It didn't matter what it was, he was positive about it. And that smile! Haven't seen you guys since the Amway days (remember, Carolyn?) and hope the rest of you are well and happy. God bless you all as you go through all the necessary stuff, but it's good to know you have wonderful memories of an outstanding man.
