

Josefa Reyna

August 27, 1925 - November 21, 2013

Josefa (Alla) Reyna, 88, passed away peacefully on November 21, 2013 surrounded by her loving family at Rush-Copley Medical Center. She was born on August 27, 1925 in Montemorelos, Nuevo Leon, Mexico.

Alla was a loving Aunt and Great Aunt, having helped raise everyone since birth; she was like a 2nd mother to all of us! She was someone who always tried to keep the family together and was always around when needed never giving it a second thought. She was a great seamstress, and an excellent cook, who loved to eat tamales, tortas, and barbacoa. Josefa had a big sweet tooth, often hiding chocolates in her pockets! Josefa was very crafty in her time; there was nothing she couldn't do. She had a sarcastic answer with a touch of humor for everything. She was truly admired and loved by many! Josefa was a grand woman!

She was preceded in death by her parents Jose Reyna and Maria Correa; sister, Maria Reyna Correa; brothers, Arturo, Genaro and Heriberto Reyna; nephew, Jorge R. Salas; niece, Elvira Salas; and brother-in-laws, Jose Guadalupe Salas Sanchez and Reynaldo Salas.

She is survived by her sisters, Eva Salas and Manuela Reyna; and countless nieces and nephews, Imelda (Enrique) Contreras, Jose (Maria) Salas, Raquel (Jesus) Medina, Maria (Ernesto) Rios, Ana Maria (Jose) Cervantez, Dagoberto (Oralia) Salas, Rosa (Ignacio) Ramirez, Diana (Antonio) Cervantes and Martha Lorena (Juan) Aranda; great-niece, Mayra Rios; and numerous great nieces and nephews whom she loved dearly.

“ One memory I will remember always is every morning I'd ask Alla "como dormiste anoche?" and she would say "pos con los ojos cerrados" or "pos acostada" and than start laughing! I'm going to miss her so much, getting up in the mornings and not seeing her is so hard! Te quiero mucho Alla!!
