“ Grandpa, I've never seen this coming because you were always in good spirit and full of fun and laughter. This  my heart to see you go but God has the last words Because he is in control of our lifes. I love you and I always will cherish and remember all the fun times together with you. It breaks my heart to see you go. If I could I would walk up to heaven and bring you home I would. I Love you grandpa Joe. I will always have fond memories of you working on (The Red Light Bandit) in the garage, as well as client cars waiting for you to work on. The highlight of your career was being a top master mechanic. I am so honored to have called you my grandfather, My second father. But I will never forget the memories that we had and shared together. I can still hear grandma saying Joe what took you so long. I can still hear your voice clear and loud. Your laughter and smiles brings joy to everyone you were around. So Rest In Heaven unill we meet again. Love Dondr'e Brown. (Grandson).

“ I met Joe when I was a child in 3rd grade after becoming best friends with his daughter Joanna. Growing up, I spent lots of time at Joe and Shirley's home, they were like second parents to me. One thing Joe and Shirley loved doing was go dancing every Friday night. Many Fridays I would see them get dressed up to go dancing and they would be so happy. Now they are dancing in heaven together. To Joanna, Juliana, Julia, Birdie, Randy, and Craig, I am so sorry for your loss and I pray for you all. Barb Evans

“ My most heartfelt sympathies for your loss and condolences to my cousins, The Brown Family, Joe shine the light to all of us kids growing up around his talent of racing, from mastering shadetree mechanic to being the boss of drag racing on the East side of Aurora. He showed his best as a father to his family, a teacher to relatives and good faith to friends. You will be missed Mr. Joe Brown, but your legend will continue on. God speed and R.I.P.

“ Joe and Shirley were 2nd parents to me growing up next door on College ave . They protected and fought for me just like I was their own child. Joe was an amazing man and I know he and my dad shared many secrets 😊. Whenever I'm in Aurora cooking fried fish, shrimp and gumbo Mom always made sure I fixed food for Joe! I love you guys so much and my heart is breaking because I want so desperately to be there. You guys always stood by the Jackson's. Love forever. Brenda Jackson.

“ We grew up together in rural Mound Bayou, Mississippi where he was best known then as Junior. He was one of my most revered playmates. When not otherwise engaged in hard work, Junior would go to cotton fields looking for yellow "meat" watermelons that he dearly loved-most especially the heart. RIP Junior for you kept the faith and ran a good race.

“ My deepest condolence for the lost of your father Mr. Brown, like always called him, may he rest in Peace. He was not only a neighbor of more than 30 yrs, but a friend. I will always cherish his conversations and concern for me. He always would stop wherever he was doing in his garage to ask how we were doing. I admired that of him and his big smile. I will keep him close to my heart , may his memories give you all strength in this difficult times. Alma Ramirez

“ Here's is to the best Father , Grandfather, great Grandfather the world has known. You gave us the blueprint to be a real man.. I've always admired you and so glad I've gotten the chance to tell you that time and time again. We had a bond that was like a father and son and for you being my grandfather and stepped up and took care of me like your own. You gave me an Amazing Life. And I Thank you for that.. so glad you got a chance to help me raise my own kids Aady and Zariah. And you've been a walking angel to this planet . Cant wait to her your voice again and that laugh. Love you Joe
