“ To Larry and family, Schmit family and Freeman family. Judy was a dear cousin, and I my first memory of Judy and her siblings is from 1950 when my mom and dad (Bill and Edna Wrought) moved back to Aurora from California. We stayed at uncle Frank and aunt Kathy's house for a few months until we able to move to west side of Aurora. Memories of such fun playing all over the house and yard. I also remember several of the Schmit family picnics. Judy became my closest cousin, and through the years I would see her and Larry at various stores while shopping. What a sweet, gentle spirit God gave her. Blessings to all as you grieve.

“ So sorry to see this Larry. Thinking about Joyce and I married at the same church and you and Judy were like from the same family. The Mallon family is greatly admired and it is very difficult to see things change in this way. Judy and you are in my prayers. God Bless Her.

*Our deepest sympathy. Sorry we could not attend the services, we are out of town. While driving yesterday, about the time of Judy's service, I noticed a sign on the highway that said "Kay's Place". So many different memories of special moments.
