“ Today, I discovered that my X-Mother-In-Law, June passed away. I have traveled past her home on Oakwood, and noticed that things were not kept up, as she would have taken care of her home. At that point, I decided to research online. Upon searching her name is when I discovered her obituary. June shared many of her talents with me, from ceramics to gardening. Each project was completed with pride and precision. I do not receive a local newspaper, and was unaware of her passing. I would have been there for you (Jerry and Rita), during this most difficult period of adjustment. We enjoyed such fun family times together, and I miss our relationships. May she rest in Peace.....Bobbie

“ All it ever took was a quick phone call ( last minute or she made too much fuss) that we were dropping by passing through town and we were greeted with a warm smile usually in her "rock" garden and ushered into the breezeway or kitchen depending on season for homemade goodies. The last few times it was goulash. I loved to pick her brain about long deceased relatives I had never met to gain more insight into our family history. We cherish still in my house the hand painted ceramics and hand thrown pottery she gave us over the years. Love always, Bryck Bergman
