“ I remember Ken when he was involved with the scout troop back in the 70's, along with his brothers. Mike Bates

“ Ken was a good friend. I was lucky enough to be in one of Ken's bands in 1989. His friendship was one of those rare friendships that even if we didn't talk for a few years, we just picked up where we left off, like it was last week. Ken was the most philosophical person I have ever met and I doubt I will ever meet anyone as philosophical as he was. He is missed.

“ I will never forget the ride in Ken's old Chevy convertible with Jim, Frank and I. It was like out of a movie as we would cruze through Downtown Aurora jamming and sitting up on the car. It was a blessing to meet and play tunes with him. Playing on Lasalle street next to the boxing place was Awesome R.I.P Ken. Prayers for all .

“ Ken will be greatly missed. I am sorry for your loss. I knew him through my Uncle Jim Simpson from a young age mostly through the musical jam sessions! He was a great musician and a very humble, friendly person. In our last visit at my Uncle's home Ken was making coffee in the kitchen. We had many good talks! I know now that he is at peace with God in heaven. God Bless you all!

“ I worked with Ken back in 1981 when I was doing a tribute to Jim Morrison called "All the Children Are Insane" which we performed at the Riverfront Playhouse. He was such a talented musician and a pleasure to work with. A very quiet and funny, quirky guy. He picked up new tunes very quickly and blended with the band seamlessly, with no ego trips, which is so rare. My sincere condolences to family and friends.
