“ Kurt was the beloved husband of my sister Vickie. I knew Kurt when we were teenagers. We ran in the same crowd at West Hills playground. As we all grew up and went separate ways Kurt was still in my life through my sister. He let me drive his car when I was getting my permit. Memories of hanging at the playground up on the hill. Kurt will be surely missed. Love to all.

I worked in the same building with Kurt. You could not find a nicer, kinder and knowledgeable guy in the business. It was a pleasure to know him and he will be greatly missed on jewelers row.
