

Lai Tyan Wey

August 14, 1931 - June 12, 2016

Laityan Wey, aged 85, was called home to the Lord on June 16, 2016 after a long illness at his home in Naperville, IL. The beloved husband, father, grandfather, and greatgrandfather was born in China in 1931, and was the middle child of three children. In 1947, at the age of 16, he fled communist China in hopes of a brighter future in South Korea. It was there that he met his wife, Yunlan. They wed in 1956 and welcomed three daughters into this world, losing one to a childhood illness. In 1974, in seek of a better life for his family, Laityan brought his family to the US, first settling in Saginaw, Michigan, and then Chicago, Illinois in 1977. He was a restaurant owner for 30 years, retiring in 1994 to enjoy life with his wife, children, and grandchildren. He spent many days babysitting and helping to raise his grandchildren, tending to his amazing vegetable garden, chauffeuring his wife around town, raising two fur-babies, and exercising at a local gym.

Laityan Wey is survived by his wife Yunlan; daughters Shwu Jian (Yu Hung Liu) Bian and Lih Nuo (Chin Won) Chiang; grandchildren Tammy (Jacob) Carlile, Andrew (Katherine) Bian, Erica (Cornel) Darden, and Jeffrey (Jennifer) Chiang; one older brother; and six greatgrandchildren.
