“ I remember Laurie best for her sense of humor. It could be wicked at times, but always accurate. You had to pay attention or she'd slip a good one right past you. I think she received that gene from her father, who is also greatly missed. But they live in us through these memories. It is a blessing to be able to laugh in hard times.

“ She taught me how to make great potato salad. She even got mad at me because I could make it great without even tasting it.

I remember whenever we would come over for a cook out, Sue. Laura would be there cracking jokes and get me laughing. I will miss those times. Excellent potato salad!
