“ Larry was my Dads only brother. My Dad always tried to plan our vacations so that his overlapped with Larrys. These days were highlights of my summer, and memories that I treasure. The last time we were all together was Mom and Dads fiftieth anniversary. I remember aunt Helen couldn't believe how hot Texas is in August. My Dad corresponded frequently with Larry and he would tell us what was going on with him. I was never very good with letters, but email became my way to keep in touch. We exchanged jokes, cute stories, and snippets about the family. Later we shared our interest in genealogy. I am going to miss him. My love to Aunt Helen, Preston, Mike and their families. You are in my prayers. I share your sorrow. If you ever need me, I am here for you. Linda (Brown) Warren.

“ Larry was my fun uncle. My childhood summers in Arkansas were made more special by his invitations to the local pool, to movies and even Dogpatch USA. He was always funny and kind to me. My heart aches. To all who knew him and especially his wife Helen, and family Preston, Mike and their families- my thoughts are with you and I am keeping you in my prayers.
