How this brings back memories. All the times our families were together. Aunt Pat was a remarkable woman. I loved going to her house. The pictures were fantastic. Even though we have not been in touch she will be missed by everyone. Rest in peace Aunt Pat and say hello to my dad. Love always. Cindy Grabow Lenert

I remember talking to her back in 1994. She said she could or would not be able to smile anymore. But seeing her tribute just now, I can only imagine how hard it was for to smile. I hope her and Chris met in heaven.

“ My sincere condolences to the family as I truly cared for Pat, knowing her for most of my years living in Blackberry Heights. She was always a joy to be around.

“ Growing up in Blackberry Heights, we had many "Moms"! Pat was certainly one of them, who kept us all grounded & in line. She was also very funny & kept a smile on my face for sure. Such a sad loss for her family, but I pray they keep her memory alive with stories from their childhood. God Bless you, Mrs. Lents.
