“ Dear Zelensek family, especially our dear friends, Mike and Agnes,

My wife Colleen and I send our very best and warmest wishes to your entire family. We are so sorry for your loss during this most Holy season of Advent and Christmas. We will keep all of you in our prayers during this time of loss and grieving. While we won't be able to be with you in person, we will keep you in our thoughts. May God give you comfort and peace and bring you great solace. I pray that God will shower you all with blessings and you celebrate the life of a great woman and mother. You have been blessed to have her in your life.

Wishing you all the good things that God has to offer.
In deepest sympathy,
Deacon Michael and Colleen Puscas
