“ Our prayers go out to the entire family during this time. Perhaps some of the most comforting words that I have ever heard when grieving for the loss of a loved one, came from a minister who reminded the congregation that the best way to memorialize a person of devout faith is to look back and celebrate the manner in which they lived their life in a manner that was inspirational to others and helped others to follow God's teachings.

“ Though I have known Lucille for only the past few years when I became a resident in McAuley convent, I will miss her much. I came to know her because of our early appointments each Monday morning at the Hair Salon. She was always dressed in color-coordinated clothing with matching jewelry and shoes. I was always fun to see what she would be wearing!!

Lucille would be waiting for me every Thursday afternoon when I came to her room with Holy Communion. She was also very faithful in her attendance at Mass in our McAuley Chapel.

I will remember her on her birthday, January 6, when she would have turned 100 years old. She was so looking forward to her celebration. Now she will celebrate in heaven!!

My condolences to all of you in your loss!

With my sympathy and prayers,
