“ Lynn was a special person. She cared deeply for her family and her friend. I spent much time with Lynn growing up. In high school we walked to school together. Through our lives we have connected and disconnected but she never changed. I know there is a big hole in the family circle but she would want you to gather the circle closer and enjoy that granddaughter and teach her the love Lynn had. Memories are one thing we cannot lose or cannot be stolen and cannot be destroyed. Enjoy those

“ One of those few special people always with kind words and never forgetting an occasion to send a cheerful Hallmark card with lots of cute stickers! Wish I had the opportunity to know Mom better but i know the loving wonderful family that she raised and they are a great tribute to her!
