“ I had surgery at Mercy in November, 2011. Whose smiling face should I see when I arrived back in my room but Lynne's. We were able to get reacquainted for a few days. She was so helpful and friendly. She made the otherwise scary experience a little better with her lovely smiles. The world is indeed a sadder place without her. May she rest in the arms of our Holy Mother and her Son. Cecilia Schweitzer May

“ I also went to Rosary High School with Lynne where we graduated in 1968. Lynne always had a smile on her face and had a very hearty laugh that was contagious. I often saw her at the hospital when my parents were admitted, and she was so comforting and compassionate to them and her other patients. I am saddened by her passing, but her memory will always be present. To her family, I want to extend my sincerest sympathy. Know that she is Home with God and that you will be united with her some day.

“ Lynne and I were members of the Rosary High School "Great '68" class. She was cheerful, good-humored and kind, with a friendly smile for all. More recently, I saw Lynne grieve through the loss of her daughter Sarah. We met up again a year or so later at a RHS class reunion. While we relived memories, Lynne also shared about how she loved her work as a nurse at Provena Mercy Center. No doubt that through her nursing attentions, there are numerous people who benefitted from her kindness and compassion during difficult times. May her family find solace in knowing that Lynne is in a peaceful place with God and loved ones. I'm sure she's providing comfort and care to everyone.

“ To all of Lynne's family, friends and colleagues - I know you will all miss Lynne's kindness and smile. I went to Rosary with Lynne . . . she was part of our "two table mini-group!" We shared a lot at Rosary. I will always remember what a really nice person Lynne was. May we all share a good laugh again someday in the afterlife. My thoughts are with all Lynne's loved ones at this sad time. Mary Meister (Seattle)

“ My thoughts and prayers are with all of you in Lynne's family. I'll be there in spirit, even if I can't be there physically. It is a little hard to keep in touch with all of my cousins/family in the USA, when one lives in Denmark, Europe. I remember Lynne as a close cousin, good friend and a glad classmate at Rosary.

My thoughts and prayers are with Lynne's family and extended family. I, too, attended Rosary High School with Lynne, and always enjoyed her infectious smile and hearty laugh. I remember well the care she gave my mother while she was at Provena many years ago. Lynne was always a warm, caring individual and I am sure that our Lord has assigned her to continue the great work she did here on earth in her Heavenly home. I am sorry I was not able to be there to extend my condolences in person.
