“ I am so grateful to have shared precious time with Aunt Penny. She was a classy lady and taught me many things as a child growing up. In visiting her the last couple of years we sat many hours as Aunt Penny told story after story about her life. I will treasure them (as I wrote them down to remember always) Aunt Penny I will love you always and I'll see you in Heaven! Until then.....sleep on.

“I'm sorry to hear of your Mothers passing. When I think of my childhood years in Roanoke, the Darabans are an important part of it. I remember when your Mother came over to our house ( Wiedmans) and helped my Mom with household chores after my younger brother John was born. So nice of her. She always seemed energetic and uplifting.
