“ We lived across the street from the Barry family in Lombard. As a young teenager she made quite an impression on me. When mom and I would get stuck on a sewing project, she would come right over to help. In no time at all she would understand the problem and come up with a quick solution. It was easy for her to see it and do it. It showed me what a good neighbor was. Selfless. Peggy was a servant to all in her life; always wanting to help. We were all better for knowing her.

“ The two of us, standing in the Principal's office when we were 5 (Peg) and 6 (me) with Peg offering reasons to believe that 'we are sisters.' Sister Gerarda was so confused; could not figure out the different last names and addresses. So Peg pops up with: "Well our Dad thought one house was two crowded, so we got another one." That, along with so many in the precious decades we shared space, dreams, children, ideas. Her great heart remains with us. Let us use that well.

“ I met Peggy . . . and Larry, during their decades of volunteerism at Ray Graham Association for People with Disabilities. Their leadership, knowledge and generosity were extraordinary and contributed to significant growth and policy changes on behalf of children and adults with disabilities and their families. Peggy worked SO hard, always had great ideas and made everyday fun! My thoughts and prayers are with her family during this difficult time.
