“ My grandmother was an amazing person, she taught me sewing, crocheting, cooking and so much more. When we were kids she would watch us and make "Grandma Soup" or grilled cheese in the toaster oven (which we all thought was just the biggest treat.) The love she gave us will live on through those that knew her. In the end dementia had taken her memories of the family but not her joy and love. I am glad she is at peace but will miss her the rest of my days.
