“ Mary Ann and all your family, I am sorry to hear about losing Marguerite. I know the last few years were challenging for Marguerite as well as for all who loved her, but we are never really ready to say good-bye, no one no matter the circumstances. Hold on to the great memories when she was healthy and know that one day you will see her smiling healthy face again. She is at peace, happy and without pain. Embrace the circle of life and the great memories. I love you guys and pray for your comfort.

Love,
Frances
