“ Carol, somehow I missed this altogether. Jerry and I are so sorry for your loss. Your Mom was there when we brought our boys home the hospital at birth. If that hill behind the house on Kingsway could talk, it would tell many great stories of the fun all the kids had sledding with your Dad and hot chocolate with your Mom. We loved having them as neighbors. May Marian be happy and sleep well. Barb and Jerry Youngren

“ Carol and family, you have my sympathy and prayers at this time. Your mother lived a wonderful and long life and she must have known how much she was loved by your entire family. May you take comfort in knowing she was well loved and loved all of you very much. Love, Kathy Navota
