“ Marie was so helpful in setting up Big Rock Library. Her donation of that beautiful oak dining table serves us really well. She was such a lovely lady- precise in her makeup, her clothes, and great ideas for books and reading. It's been several months since I visited her but what a role model for what age 105 is like. Rest in peace, Marie. You are missed.

“ I remember Mrs. Cox as a very kind and engaging teacher with a wonderful sense of humor. She also kept the best little classroom library at Bardwell - a simple but very fond memory of my third grade experience in 62/63. May you rest in peace, Mrs. Cox.

“ What can I say except that she was considerate and kind. She raised her daughters to be like her. Both her and Tom were great neighbors who made their acquaintance a great experience especially in my years I had with them before moving away.
