“ Dear Hollis family,

My heart goes out to you all during this time. Although I never had the pleasure of meeting Marie, I have felt such Love & Admiration for the Hollis family since meeting her brother Edward, about 31 years ago, when he went way above & beyond, helping our little family of 4 purchase our first home in Mocherville that he himself helped to build for his own family & where my husband & I still live in Love today. He showed us such Love & kindness & spoke so highly of family, that I couldn't help but think of you all with Love in my heart all these years.

Many prayers & Loving thoughts are flowing your way today & always,

“ Dear Bob, Marilyn and Bob, Leanne and John,

My condolences on your Mother's passing. I know you will miss her deeply. I can't think of another person who I admired more or was more comfortable being around -- her offspring are a memorial to her.

Jane, of course, is very sad and will always love her "mom"; and both Marie and Bob will be always in our prayers.
