Marie was born on November 6, 1913 in Chicago, IL to Nicholas and Anna Adam. She graduated from St. Martin Commercial Department in 1930. She married Edward Mathieu in 1942. Ed was in the Army and stationed in Cheyenne, WY, so off they drove to Cheyenne where they lived until 1944 when Ed was sent overseas. In 1943, their daughter Patricia was born. Marie returned to Aurora, where Ed joined her after his discharge and they lived on Edwards Street, until their move in 1999 to Wedgewood Apartments in Montgomery, IL. After her heart attack in 2012, Marie moved into Sunnymere Senior Community Living where she lived until her death.

Marie's first job was at Electro Motor in LaGrange until her marriage. After moving to Cheyenne she was employed at United Airlines. When she returned home to Aurora she went to work at Thor Power Tool. Her last job was at Dynacolor, which was bought by 3M. For 35 years Marie bowled on two bowling leagues and she and Ed traveled all over the United States, wherever ABC bowling tournaments were being held. Marie and Ed loved entertaining their friends and had a lot of parties at their home. Every holiday the whole family would assemble at their house to enjoy good food and fun. “ Even though I haven't seen Marie for a while, I will miss her and I know that all of you will, too. The world was a brighter place when she was in it. I will miss her kindness, generosity and cheerfulness. She had the ability to laugh at herself, a rare quality. Marie made everybody feel special. One hot summer afternoon, she invited my family for a visit and to show us family memorabilia. Though that Sunday was sweltering, Marie made us a roast beef dinner with all the trimmings. She wouldn't let us clear the table or help with the dishes. To her this occasion may have been a small thing, but to us it was a memorable day.
I am sorry that health problems prevent me from being with you, but Marie and all of you will be in my thoughts and prayers.
