“ Our deepest condolences to the "Schuster" family.

Marilyn loved her grand kids, I still laugh every time I see a "Cabbage Patch" doll, Special Forces GI Joe, etc. and all the other hard to find toys, I think of her.

Be it early morning on "Black Friday" shopping, or travel miles out of her way, some how she always found a way to put smiles on the grand kids faces.

Again, we are so sorry for your loss.

“ My favorite years working at Moose International were during the time Marilyn worked in the Membership Department. We had more fun at work and were like family. My mother and I would go to Bingo with Marilyn on many occasions. I know she will be missed by her family. - William B. Airey and family
