“ Marj,
What will I see now when I look across the yard to your house, who will I share my meals with when I make to much; I will miss you terribly! You had a great sense of humor and a quick laugh, and I enjoyed sharing stories with you and visiting. The end came so soon from when you were diagnosed we really didn't get to say goodbye. Even though you didn't open yours eyes you moved your hand to me so I know you new I was there. So now you are with Don and you will be at peace.
