“ Mark was a classmate and friend since grade school at St. Thomas. I am so sorry for the loss of this good man, although I think I will always remember him as a goofy kid. My sincerest condolences to his family and loved ones.

“ Mark was one of the best brothers anyone could have. I always considered him as my brother as we shared a lot of the same interests in fishing, outdoors, snowmobiling and just being dumb and funny. Having him in my life for the last 27 years have truly been a blessing. My three boys always enjoyed spending time with him doing whatever they were doing no matter what it was, he has left a lasting memory with each and every one of them that will never go away. He was always the funny uncle that they looked forward to seeing when they could. He will be missed dearly and never forgotten. He was the best. I am proud to say had I not married his sister I would have never had the pleasure if spending some of the best times of my life with him.

“ My childhood memories of Mark remind me of summer days spent exploring the creek near their house in Northbrook...probably we weren't supposed to be in it, but hey, we were kids exploring the world around us. He made us omelettes. Visiting with him in Sugar Camp last summer reminded me of his inquisitive spirit and his deep appreciation of nature. Love you cousin! You are a light of the world now.
