“ My Tia Nena had the eyes, smile, and laughter of a mischivious little girl, well into her adult years. Her demeanor was playful and warm, though her lessons and wisdom always shone thru. She was a precious member of our (large) family.. an inspiring woman who endured much adversity and hardship all with that little smile on her beautiful round face. Words cannot justify our profound loss. As her nieces and nephews, although many- we each hold special moments and encounters with mi Tia that will last us a lifetime. As a sister, she was a dedicated friend, a pilar devoted to building a strong family. As a mother, she was supportive and unconditionally loving. As a grandmother and wife, she was a fundamental source of love and strength. For all of us, she was so many things. She was simply adored by all who had the priviledge of getting to know her. I pray that she is soaring and laughing beautiful in the next dimension, enjoying all the freedoms and relief she undoubtably deserves. I love you mi preciosa tia Nena
