“ Mrs. Gin was my “babysitter” all through my grade school years. I put babysitter in quotes because she was so much more. She was like a second mom showing more love and patience for me that was for more than I deserved. Whenever I look back, I feel incredibly blessed to have been accepted (and tolerated) by her and her loving family. As sad as this news is, I have NO DOBT she is in heaven with Christ God looking down on us with her always wonderful smile. I’ll miss you Mrs. Gin but I know heaven is rejoicing. Prayers and condolences to the family.

“ I hesitate to say this, but I think it needs to be said. Mary Alice and Richard were the first interracial couple I knew and they showed that their love was perfectly normal.

“ To say that Mary Alice showed the love of Jesus to others is, in my opinion, a massive understatement! She always opened her home to others, and was involved in so many ways at First Pres! What more is there to say?

I am saddened but at the same time rejoicing as she is clearly home with Richard and whole. She was a beautiful soul and sweet as sugar. Her legacy lives on through her family and all she did for so many for so many years. Blessings sweet Alice. You ran the race so well.
