“ Go, Cubs, go
Go, Cubs, go
Hey, Chicago, what do you say
The Cubs are gonna win today

I spoke with Fr. Jerry on Sunday afternoon and he said Mary had died. That night the Cubs were playing. They were losing 0-3. In the bottom of the ninth they had bases loaded. My husband Jeff said, "We need a grand slam to win." I said, "Hit one for Mary." And low and behold Bote did just that...a grand slam...Cubs Win!

And Mary has won too...eternal life with Jesus.

She was a wonderful person. I will miss her at Church. Her jokes. Her smile. Her singing. Continue to pray for us. God Bless You Mary!

“ Lit a blue candle for Mary...."Cubbie Blue". I always looked forward to playing at Mass and seeing Mary sitting in the second pew. You always said you would pray for me...now you are in the best place to offer those prayers.

Eternal rest grant upon her, O Lord.

And let perpetual light shine upon her.

May her soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, Rest In Peace. Amen.

May Mary rest in peace. Mary is where she longed to be. She is with her dear mother & sisters & brother. She was my prayer warrior. When she would sit in my office on Wednesdays she would talk about her beloved Cubs & her nieces & nephews & their families. She would show pictures of family whenever she got new ones. Mary was a character & always had us laughing. She loved helping out in RE. We have a big picture of Jesus when you leave the RE office & she would always kiss him. She would always say it was her sexy Jesus. Mary will be missed.

We would see Mary often at church. When got a chance to talk to her, she would ask about our grandson Eli. She would tell us how she's been praying for him ever since she first found out that he had Down syndrome. May her prayers now continue from heaven. May the perpetual light shine on Mary and may her soul and all the souls in heaven rest in peace.

Mary was such a good and faithful servant. She was always willing to give. Long ago, she was unable to fulfill the calling to religious life in order to care for her mother, but I assured her that she was serving her Bridegroom throughout her life with her generous ways. May eternal rest be granted unto Mary.
