“ Aunt Mary used to babysit me when I was really little. She took care of me when I came down with the mumps while at her house. For my first communion Aunt Mary made a beautiful cake with rainbow confetti inside! She made the coolest clothes for my Barbie dolls. I loved going to her house; always lots going on, she had a cool basement to play in with the boys and grandma Blatner lived there. At least I think she did because she was always there! You have gone home to live with Jesus now and all your family and friends surround you! 💜

“ Mary was my mom's best friend while living at Belles Terres. I always drove the ladies to church. Many of my fondest memories were with Mary and my mom. I have missed her since she left Belles Terres but take comfort in the knowledge that she is in heaven with my mom now. May she rest in peace. I am so sorry for the loss her family must feel.
