

Mary Bohler Veras

June 30, 1957 - January 10, 2023

Beloved wife and sister, Mary Bohler Veras of Aurora left this world peacefully on January 10th, 2023. She was kind and generous, sharp-witted and fun-loving, and cherished by all who knew her. An ardent devotee of music, Mary performed in and directed several productions of the Holy Cross Players in Batavia. She loved cooking, travel, corny jokes, virtual gaming, and all things fantasy. She held a degree in Geology and was a fierce, capable, and dedicated professional. With her indomitable, curious, and kinetic spirit, Mary was in every way a sparkling gift to this world! We will treasure and miss her always.

Mary is survived by her husband of 34 years, Ed Veras, and sisters Liz Thompson, Bonne Bohler, and Anne Mills. She was preceded in death by her parents Mary and Ed Bohler, sister Nancy McCall, and brother Bob Bohler. Sadly, Mary's brother Brian Bohler passed away three days after Mary on January 13, 2023.

A memorial will be held at THE DALEIDEN MORTUARY on February 3, 2023 from 5:00-7:00 p.m.

“ I will never forget Aunt Mary. She was the cutest, funniest, most caring person I know. She always supported me through all my endeavors and her proud excitement was something I will always cherish. I'll miss our chats at family functions, talking about past lives and soul groups..she convinced me her and I were part of one of these soul groups. I will always think of that and how joyous it will be when our “soul group” reunites for eternity. Love you Aunt Mary! I promise to celebrate you every day for the rest of my life❤️

“ What a beautifully written tribute to Mary. We didn't see each other often, but when we got together it was always like old times. I remember spending many happy times in Hartford City Indiana where the Bohlers all lived in what I thought was a giant house! We could always make each other laugh, she wanted a cat farm & I wanted a horse ranch. We thought we could combine the two & live happily together with our animals when we grew up. I will miss her until we meet again, & laugh about our many fabulous memories ❤️
With lots of love to Mary, Ed & Family, Tracey
