“ Mary Ann was my Administrative Assistant for several years, competent and pleasant. We shared a great many thoughts about how things used to be and even more ideas, many of hers excellent, about how things should have been. I missed her after she retired and I will miss her now as a friend.

Went to high school with Mary Ann. She was a good friend and a prime mover in getting class reunions up and running. She was a very sweet person and will be so missed. Heartfelt condolences to her family.

“ MaryAnn (mimmi to me) grew up together as neighbors. Never a dull moment when we where together. We enjoyed everyday together. Laughed and cried together. We where sisters from different Mothers.
Mimmi was a loving caring person. Always ready to help who ever needed it.
I'm going to miss your smile my dear friend of 70 yrs.
Rest in Peace. Until we meet again. ❤️
