“ Tracie, I was thinking about your mom a lot through the holidays and decided to Google her...I'm so sorry to be so delayed in extended my condolences. You know I absolutely adored Mary Jo. Her fiery spirit, her unwavering determination, her fierce love of her family and her mischievous sense of humor brightened my days, as I'm sure she did for anyone who had the pleasure of knowing her. I know you must miss her terribly and I hope you are living life largely and seeing yourself through HER eyes. Please know I will never forget her and I'm so glad I had the pleasure of meeting you both. Peace to you and Tom and much love to Mary Jo's memory...Tricia Janosy (cancer center sw)

“ Tom, Tracie, Jason and rest of family; Words cannot express the sorrow over the loss of your sweet wife, mother and grandmother. Will cherish the memories of other times when she was healthy and enjoying life. To know she is no longer suffering brings comfort thru the pain. To you Joface, your loving, giving, caring, life and to the joy you brought to ours. Thank you for being the greatest friend always. I love you. Memo

“ Oh boy, where should I begin with all my fond memories of Maryjo.....how about the night she chased down Dennis Phillips in her night gown because she heard people talking, when actually it was Dennis and I just saying good night on my back deck. Or how about the one afternoon I just mentioned I was thinking about removing some bushes from the front of our house, the next thing I know is she has her old Blazer and a chain wrapped around the bush and pulling it out roots and all! Maryjo was a great friend and neighbor. I will miss sitting on the front porch visiting with her in the afternoons when I did home daycare. Only happy tears, until we meet again, Lin
