“ Aurora Illinois was a great place to grow up in the 1960's. Mike Foltos was a neighbor and a friend of mine in those days. I lived on Superior Street just around the corner from Mike's house on Trask. We played Little League baseball together for a team sponsored by the Barber-Greene company. We practically lived at those baseball fields close by at Solfisburg Park. I also remembered later listening to the early Beatles' albums at his house during those crazy days of the "British Invasion". Although we went our separate ways after high school, I was still saddened to hear today of his passing.
