“ People enter and exit your life during your time in this world, some have a huge impact on your direction, touch you in a special way and others merely brush your existence. Mildred was one of those people that touched me in a very special way. She was my Godmother, and she took that job seriously. Birthdays and Holidays were always recognized. Whenever I saw her at family gatherings, she was always ready with a quick smile and a big hug. Her positive personality was infectious; you couldn't help but add to that smile she shared. I so enjoyed the few visits that we connected here in California, the last time I didn't want to leave; I really enjoyed our time spent together. She shared a very close relationship with my mom, I'm sad that we've lost another link to mom's past. She lived a very fulfilling and happy life; the Mueller family is such a wonderful legacy to both Eldred and Mildred. I'll miss her; she'll always be in my thoughts.
