“ Oscar was my hairdresser for many years. He was the sweetest, kindest man with a wonderful and warm personality. He always made me feel good when I came and made me look beautiful when I left! He had so many friends who loved and cherished him. I saw this at his memorial service in San Diego. Hard to accept he is gone from our lives. I know he is at peace wherever he is.

“ just wanted to share a little prayer Saints of God, come to his aid! Come to meet him, angels of the Lord!Receive his soul and present him to God the Most High.May Christ, Who called you, take you to Himself;may angels lead you to Abraham's side.Receive his soul and present him to God the Most High.Give him eternal rest, O Lord, and may Your light shine upon him/her forever.Receive his soul and present him to God the Most High.Let us pray: We commend our brother, Oscar melero to you, Lord.Now that he has passed from this life, may he live on in Your presence. In Your mercy and love, forgive whatever sins he may have committed through human weakness. We ask this through Christ our Lord.Amen.

“ I will always remember Oscar for his sweetness and kindness. He always had a smile, never said a bad word about anyone and was just such a decent and beloved human being. Oscar was my hair stylist for years until I moved out of San Diego. When I would return to SD on visits I would usually make a point of scheduling with him and he always made the time to squeeze me in and we would enjoy a long catch-up talk. Please find comfort in knowing that your son, your brother and your uncle was respected and lived by so many. We will always miss our dear Oscar.

“ My condolences to the Melero family in the loss of their beloved Oscar. Oscar was one of the nicest people I've known in life, always kind & good natured, always with a smile. I've known Oscar since 1990, as Oscar worked in the same salons as my hair stylist & took care of me for a time when my stylist was off. During that time, I got to know Oscar better & to learn more about his large family. I was shocked & deeply saddened to learn just now of his passing, he will be greatly missed. My thoughts will be with his family & friends.

Oscar has a sister who is one of the most strongest, resilient, powerful, confident, smart, beautiful, kind, caring and selfless woman I know. She's been the bestest kind of friend to me for years. She talked about Oscar a lot and now her pain is indescribably deep. Oscar made such an impact on Stella growing up and I know he will continue to be her angel while she's still here on earth making a difference. My sympathy to all the Melero family and friends. Love, The Schmidts

The most amazing thing about Oscar is the fact that he would have been the first to forgive this drunk driver. Oscar lived life to the fullest, and part of that living involved helping a lot of people he crossed paths with on the way. He was always very caring, giving and generous. He constantly volunteered his time, I remember several years he volunteered at the homeless shelter for youth in downtown San Diego, he would cut kids hair, any way they liked, with initials carved in, whatever the latest style was, he would laugh and joke with them, counsel them, sometimes give them money, take them to lunch or dinner, these were mostly kids from South America, with no family, and no hope. Oscar's light on this planet can never be replaced, and I'm sure wherever he is now, is much brighter because of his presence. I will miss him dearly and love him always.

I echo Kevin's sentiment about Oscar wanting to forgive the drunk driver. That's the first thing that came to my mind. Oscar, lived his life with forgive and forget principle. He loved taking young people under his wings and show them the way. The young kid who took Oscar's life would exactly be the kind of person Oscar would have mentored.
