Patricia J. Nielsen (née McShane) of Hinckley, IL passed away Monday, May 14, 2018, at the age of 69. She leaves behind her beloved husband, Terry Nielsen; her sister, Donna (Chuck) Poulson; her three children, Dan (Theresa) Williams, Jessica (Remy) Tineo, and Ted Nielsen; her mother-in-law Barbara Nielsen; and her eight grandchildren. Pat was born February 24, 1949 at Patuxent River Naval Station to Thomas and Elizabeth McShane (née Cowen). Thomas’ career as a naval chief bounced the family through Oklahoma and Maryland, until the McShane family finally settled in Forest Park, IL. A lifetime lover of horses, Pat, her mother, and her sisters founded the farm at Oak St & Randall Rd where Pat was the middle of three generations of passionate riders and horse breeders. She was an accomplished show woman in cattle roping and rode primarily a Western seat. Pat graduated Ohio University Zanesville with a degree in Accounting. She was a CPA and comptroller for several Chicagoland companies before retiring in 2007.

Pat was also a longtime parishioner and volunteer at St. Rita of Cascia in Aurora, IL – serving as a lector, member of various committees, a leader in youth religious education, and as the church bookkeeper. A devout Catholic, she freely gave of her time and talent to St. Rita's until her health declined and she and Terry moved to Hinckley, IL; once there, they joined the St. Paul's community in Sandwich.
